

EstDocs Short Film Competition „100 sekundit MINU Eestit/ My Estonia in 100 seconds“ 2019 Submission Guidelines

1. The EstDocs Short Film Competition welcomes any short films, live action or animated, with any content and in any style, provided that:
 - i. a) the film has some connection to Estonia or Estonians;
 - b. Entries must be 100 seconds in length, inc. up to 15 seconds for credits.
 - c. Entries can be screened prior to June 27, 2019. They do not have to be premiere.
2. There will be a total of €2000 in award money to be won. The jury reserves the right to decide the amounts of the prizes depending on the quality of the submissions.
3. Submissions must be received, at the latest, by June 8, 2019. Note that this cannot be the postmarked date, but the actual received by date. No exceptions.
4. Categories are currently listed as Amateur and Professional. The independent jury has the discretion to create or eliminate award categories. Festival organizers and/or the jury reserve the right to assign submitted films to any category deemed appropriate.
5. Any common delivery format and container can be used, but DVD, Blu-ray or H.264 codec in MP4 container is preferred. The submitter must ensure that the film is accessible to EstDocs by the deadline. All entries must be accompanied by a completed submission form. Once a film is submitted, it cannot be withdrawn from competition. No submission materials will be returned.
6. Subtitling of non-English language films in English, and non-Estonian language films in Estonian is encouraged, to increase viewer enjoyment.
7. By submitting to the EstDocs Short Film Competition, the submitter expressly acknowledges that he or she owns all the rights in the film and grants nonexclusive, all media rights howsoever transmitted, in perpetuity, in the world, to EstDocs to exploit the submitted film.
8. EstDocs is open-minded but does not program porn or gratuitous violence. Such submissions will be disqualified.

* * * * *